THE CALIMET AND HECLA MINE. Red Jacket, Mich., correspondence of The Chicago

Red dacket. Mich, correspondence of The Chicago Tribune.

It is here the great calumes and Hecla copper mine is located the most magnificently equipped mine in the world, as well as the ticlest in copper The Calumet and Hecla is a great mine in more ways than one. It has the cost-lest as well as the most powerful hoisting machinery in use anywhere on earth. It produces more the copper than atymine that has ever been in operation; its production smoothing to ninety million pounds of refine copper ingore, bars and plates annually while the output might be increased to cas hundred and firty million pounds if the management were so dispused.

The combined burse-cower of the engines comprising the surface plant of him magnificent mines a sufficient to run all the streetcars and electricity of the company is 1,700 horse power, while they have a dozenothers nearly as large, and one in course of creeding which is expected to develop 7,000 horse-power.

These ponderous engines draw up from beneath the town of Red Jacket about lifteen thousand tons of rocks daily. Every day in the year, Fourth of July, Christmas and New Year's excepted, these gisentle hoisting machines pull up the red metal from a depth of one mile below the earth's surface, giving employment to thousands of men and making employment to thousands of men and making these faster than, and equally as surely for its stockholders, not to mention the millions of dollars this company has spent and is still spending in the ground," and the mine seems ticher to-day than at any time in its history, though as a matter of fact, poorer by the quantity extracted.

Over $55,000,000 has been disbursed among its stockholders not to mention the millions of dollars this company has spent and is still spending in the days of 12 to California to half equal in wealth produced this cane counter mine. This great camp, of Johannesburg, South Africa, has no more than held a parity with it.

THE BRITISH ALUMINUM MONOPOLY.

THE BRITISH ALIMINI M MONOPOLY.

From The Engineering and Mining Journal.

At an extraordinary general meeting of the British Aliminium Company, Limited, held recently in London, it was stated that action had been brought against ail persons who had imported aliminium from America and Germany, injunctions had been granted, and all those who had disputed the monopoly had submitted except one or two, who were about to submit. Under these arrangements none of the companies which manufacture aliminium in foreign countries will supply aluminum to Great Reitain. The principal firm against which the company brought action was Sir W. G. Armstrone, Mitchell & Co., Limited, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, the great naval construction concern.

AS TO THE HEADLINE ARTIST From The Boston Journal.

From Tae Boston Journal.

We have the greatest admiration for a distinguished inventor of headlines. To write an epic or an cessay, a chant royal or a prose poem, may be admirable, but the antitor of a dazzling headline has a stronger wing. Neither T. B. Aldrich, who polishes verse at his elegant leisure, nor Arlo Bates, who discourses most intelligently concerning literature, nor Dr. William Everett, who is preparing his inaugural address in Latin hexameters, could be at once epigrammatic, encyclopædic and irreststible in a display head; and a diughat would be far above their highest flight. At the same time we must protest against the announcement by a well-meaning artist that a burglar was "caught red-handed"; for in the report itself there was no statement that the robber, blinded by night or anxiety, put his fingers in red paint or cut them with a silvern fishknife.

A MEAN THIEF CAUGHT.

THIRTY POOR WOMEN SAID TO HAVE BEEN VICTIMIZED BY HIM FOR SMALL SUMS.

That's the meanest thief I've had before me it all my experience," said Magistrate Cornell in the Harlem Police Court yesterday afternoon, com-menting upon a man calling himself John Murphy and claiming Ninety-second-st, and Eastern Boule-vard as his residence. According to several witnesses this man has been representing himself as a physician from the Board of Health, and under that guise robbing women of small sums.

Mrs. Bertha Harding, of No. 8 East One-hur

dred-and-twelfth-st., told the Magistrate that he visited her house yesterday and, representing himself as being from the Health Board, ordered her child to be undressed for the purpose of vaccina-child to be undressed for the purpose of vaccination. When the child was undressed he orderrather placed in bed to prevent her from catching her placed in bed to prevent her from catching cold. While Mrs. Harding was in the bedroom he left the house. Mrs. Harding was in the bedroom he left the house. Mrs. Harding accuses him of having taken a purse containing $3.10.

Mrs. Goetting, who lives in the same house, was also visited by the swindler. She says he told her she would have to administer medicine to her children, and would have to pay 35 cents for it. The woman had only 16 cents, and he took that, saying that she could give the balance to the man who brought the medicine. Another woman accused him of stealing a purse containing $1, and Detective Fungston, of the East One-hundred-and-fourth-st, station, says that he will produce thirty women who have been victimized by the man. Murphy was held in $1,000 for trial.

VO NEED TO WORRY.

From The Cleveland Leader. Mrs. Paugloss. Dear mei. I'm sorry to hear that your husband, the doctor, is ill. Have you had any other physician for him?

Mrs. Piligarlick—No, he has prescribed for himself; but I'm afraid he has lost his mental balance.

Mrs. Paugloss—Oh, that's dreadful. What makes you think so?

Mrs. Pilicarlick—Why, every time he ought to take a dose he just spills two spoenfuls of the stuff in the washbowl instead of drinking it.
